Outlet Mall of India Opens Its Doors

The outlet mall concept is built around offering shoppers exceptional value on their favourite brands all year round. By bringing together a wide range of renowned brands in a single destination, Outlet Mall of India enables consumers to enjoy significant savings while experiencing the convenience of destination shopping.

Traditionally, shoppers have waited for End-of-Season Sales (EOSS) to access the best deals. Outlet Mall of India changes that equation by offering discounts of up to 70%, 365 days a year, making premium shopping more accessible and rewarding than ever before. The destination offers a compelling alternative to sale-led shopping, allowing consumers to enjoy great value whenever they choose to shop.

Speaking on the launch, the management of Outlet Mall of India said, "Today's consumers are increasingly seeking smarter ways to shop - where value, choice, and experience come together. Outlet Mall of India has been created to offer exactly that: a destination where shoppers can access some of the world's most loved brands while enjoying exceptional savings throughout the year."

Beyond shopping, the destination offers a vibrant retail experience complemented by food and beverage options, family-friendly spaces, and an environment designed for leisure and discovery.

As value-conscious shopping continues to gain momentum across India, Outlet Mall of India is poised to become the preferred destination for shoppers seeking premium brands, unbeatable deals, and an elevated outlet shopping experience.

With up to 70% savings, 365 days a year, Outlet Mall of India is giving shoppers a reason to rethink End-of-Season Sales and embrace a smarter way to shop.
